INVESTIGATION:

R/D was assigned to this investigation by report. According to the original case report, P.O. HELSON responded to a call of a protest at [REDACTED]. Upon his arrival he encountered several dozen persons blocking traffic by sitting on the ground in the intersection of [REDACTED]. HELSON, while assisting two citizens out of the street, was approached by offender [REDACTED] who yelled profanities at him which caused a crowd to gather. [REDACTED] was then told to cease and leave the area which he refused and slammed him chest/shoulders into the officer causing HELSON to lose his balance and was knocked backwards. HELSON then attempted to place [REDACTED] into custody, but [REDACTED] resisted by clinching his arms against his body and was in a crouched position. HELSON, who was then able to gain control and handcuff [REDACTED] was then approached by offender [REDACTED] who began yelling at him which caused a crowd to gather. [REDACTED] was then told to cease and leave the area, he refused and used his hands to push P.O. HELSON in his chest causing him to lose his balance and step backwards. [REDACTED] then attempted to place [REDACTED] into custody and he resisted by locking his arms against his body and crouched his body. [REDACTED] was eventually secured, placed into custody and transported to the 001st District where he was processed accordingly.

R/D contacted victim HELSON who related essentially the same account as contained on the original case report. HELSON further stated that while placing the above offenders into custody, [REDACTED] a reported from [REDACTED] interfered with his police actions by jumping on his back and pushing him in an attempt to interview the offenders. HELSON stated that at this time he just wants the incident documented and does not wish to pursue charges against [REDACTED].

Based on the above stated facts, R/D requests that this case be CLEARED CLOSED (ARREST AND PROSECUTION).
